Gen. R. F. Wingate. Gen. R. F. Wingate, ex-attorney-general of Missouri, died at the family residence, No. 3018 Sheridan avenue, St. Louis, of congestion of the lungs.

The deceased distinguished himself in poli-tics and at the bar and was honored and loved The general closed his eventful life at the ripe age of 74. He was born in Boone county, Kentucky, in 1822, and removed with his parents when a mere child to Mount Vernon. Ill where he was reared and educated. He was admitted to the bar at Vincennes, Ind., before he became of age and achieved a reputation as a successful lawyer from the first. .

When he took his first case Gen. Wingate asked assistance of Abraham Lincoln, who was then at the pinnacle of his fame as a lawyer, and the latter told him to draw up his brief and he would examine it. This the young attorney did, and when he went to Mr. Lincoln with the brief before breakfast the following morning, the latter went over it carefully, and, returning it. said: "Young man, go ahead and UNDER charges of political treach- try your case. The ways of providence are not always entirely clear to mortal eyes, the Lord works out His ends. It is sufficient for us to know that God is always good and merciful. There are few conditions that could not be worse, and no matter what causes may exist for discontent there are always abundant reasons for gratitude and thanksgiving. The occurrences of the year have not been unmixed with evil, but is safe to say that Missouri has as little to complain of the bad things and as much reason to rejoice for the good things that have fallen to the common lot as any other state in the Union. I, therefore, invoke the good people of the state to abstain from their usual employments and by appropriate services to observe the 26th day of the present month as a day of thanksgiving.

Coal Mining in Missouri. Mr. Charles Evans, state mine inspector, has completed his annual report for the year ended June 30, 1896. During the year 372 mines were operated. and employed during the winter months 7,992 men, and in the summer 5,184 men. The product of the mines amounted to 2.420,-147 tons. The average price received at the mines per ton of coal was $1.13, and the total money value of the output $2,741,711. The product of the mines for the year shows an increase over last year of 137,965 tons. The total number of accidents in the mines was 38, of which 15 were fatal. The average number of tons of coal mined

THE BATTLESHIP TEXAS.

Startling Developments About the Structural Weakness of the Vessel's Hull. WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.-It is stated at the navy department in extenuation of the fact that the court of inquiry on the battleship Texas is held behind closed doors, that it is not thought advisable to give publicity to the possible weaknesses in the ship just at the present juncture, when the eyes of other nations are directed to our naval and military establishments. It is learned that the investigation is developing evidence of a somewhat startling nature about the structural strength of the ship's hull which has caused so much concern since her keel was laid. The most remarkable thing about the recent flooding of the ship was that the watertight doors eaked and other compartments were flooded in addition to that in which the accident occurred. It is now dereloped that on account of lack of stiffness in all the bulkheads of the thip and consequent warping of the frames and plates, none of the doors when closed fitted hermetically, as they should, and the cellular system of the vessel is therefore practically worthless. This gives rise to doubts is to the utility of the vessel in action, is the wrecking of a single compart uent might sink her.

believe that the rumors of the removal of Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, sides are fighting as if they intend to Minn., are unfounded, although the archbishop has fallen into disgrace at the vatican. The case of the deposition of an archbishop or bishop is an extreme rarity, only one of the kind having occurred during the 18 years of the papacy of Leo XIII., and in this instance only when the prelate had become almost a maniac. The vatican has received the proposal of three names for the rectorship of the Catholic university at Washington to succeed Bishop Keane. All the candidates are judged to be sult. worthy of the position, and the choice

MADRID, Nov. 16 .- A dispatch to the Imparcials from Hong Kong states the report from Manila that the Soaniards had won a brilliant victory over the insurgents at Novaleta, the latter losing 400 killed, was incorrect. The. truth is that the Spaniards attacked the rebel positions at Novaleta on November 8, but could not carry them, the rebels being strongly fortified. Another attack was made on November 1, when the Spaniards were repulsed with a loss of 200 men.
